

Question 4

Step 1 :

Create a bucket in google cloud storage from the console.

Step 2 :

Create a datastore by giving entity name and adding property to it.

Step 3 :

Create a cloud function to extract information from the object updated in the bucket and store the information in the datastore created.

Step 4 :

Add cloud storage trigger on cloud function while creation and give event type Finalize/Create.